

Call for Papers

Dear colleagues,

European Association of University Professors (EuAUP) invites you to participate in the annual conference of the Association that will take place in Zagreb (Croatia), on 29-30 October 2015.

This year's conference will focus on the mutual collaboration between professors/assistants and students/young scientists and their researches, and the organization of the Fair of Scientific Institutions in order to give them an opportunity to present themselves and their work. The purpose is to establish a platform for interdisciplinary mutual collaboration in order to encourage interaction and dialogue between young scientists, their mentors and institutions in different academic fields. The introductory lecture refers to the possibilities of funding projects through EU funds. Active working sessions, headed by members of the host state's Association, will be carried out within the scope of the conference, and a wide range of scientific and technical papers will be presented on the following topics:

- Advances in Arts and Humanities
- Advances in Natural Sciences
- Advances in Electronics, Communication, Networking, Biomedicine, Biotechnology and Engineering
- Advances in Management, Economics and Social Sciences

The Conference Agenda is presented below and more information on the requirements for the submission of papers, fees, and technical instructions can be found on: www.euaup.org

Deadline for the submission of abstracts: 30/09/2015
